Speakers

Patricia Shaughnessy

Patricia Shaughnessy directs the Master of International Commercial Arbitration Law Program (LLM) at Stockholm University and teaches and researches in related fields. She chairs the “Arbitration and Dispute Resolution Section” of the Stockholm Centre for Commercial Law and is the Vice-Chair of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC). Patricia has acted as an arbitrator and expert, and as a consultant, she has led projects related to commercial law and dispute resolution in many countries.

Evelina Wahlström

Evelina T. Wahlström has a law degree from Örebro University, specializing in International Contract Law. She has been with the SCC as a case administrator since 2012 working with both investment- and commercial cases, as well as being responsible for the Escrow services. Before joining the SCC, Evelina was working at the Svea Court of Appeal. Evelina is fluent in Swedish and English, proficient in French and Italian and is currently studying Russian.

Fredrik Andersson

Fredrik Andersson co-chairs the firm’s Dispute Resolution practice group. He specializes in commercial litigation and arbitration and has acted as counsel in a large number of Swedish and international proceedings under a variety of different rules. Fredrik’s experience covers disputes in a number of different areas, including investment treaty arbitrations, engineering, energy, ship building, construction, license and M&A disputes. He is frequently appointed as arbitrator and has published books and articles on dispute resolution.

Petra Butler

Petra Butler is a Professor at Victoria University of Wellington, and Co-Director of the Centre for Small States at Queen Mary, University of London. Petra is a German fully qualified lawyer and a barrister and solicitor of the High Court of New Zealand. Petra specialises in human rights, public and private comparative law, and private international law with an emphasis on international commercial contracts. Petra is New Zealand's CLOUT correspondent for the CISG and the UN Convention on the Use of Electronic Communications in International Contracts. Petra was recently scholar-in-residence at Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale & Dorr LLP. She also has been involved in various roles in the Vis Moot competition for over 10 years.

James Hope

James Hope is a partner and Head of Vinge's dispute resolution group in Stockholm. He is a dual-qualified Swedish Advokat and English Solicitor- Advocate, with over 20 years' experience of dispute resolution, including 10 years' experience from practising in London. He acts both as counsel and as arbitrator in international arbitrations, both in Sweden and abroad, and his recent cases have involved Swedish, English, Californian, Chinese, Russian, Italian and Finnish laws, amongst others. He is a guest lecturer at Stockholm, Uppsala and Edinburgh Universities. He is also a member of the Board of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce.
