

2018 DIS ARBITRATION RULES

19 February 2019 | 8³⁰ – 11 am

The Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm
Chamber of Commerce

Brunnsgatan 2, SE-111 38 Stockholm

DIS

German Arbitration Institute

Programme

8:30 am Check-in

9:00 am Welcome by Kristin Campbell-Wilson, Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, Stockholm

9:10 am Panel 1 – *The Making of the new DIS Rules/Organisational Changes

Moderation: Alexander Foerster, MANNHEIMER SWARTLING, Stockholm

Speakers: Viktor von Essen, German Arbitration Institute, Berlin/Bonn
Peter Heckel, Independent Arbitrator, Frankfurt am Main
Ramona Schardt, Siemens AG, Munich
James Hope, Vinge, Stockholm

Introduction to the project “New DIS Rules”. What do users expect from a modern set of arbitration rules and how to involve the users (and other stakeholders) in the drafting process. The importance of a bilingual version. Organizational changes - the DIS Council and DIS Appointing Committee vs the almighty Board. Modern case administration, IT Security, fee structure – how to attract the best arbitrators? Which trends in international institutional arbitration were considered? Consolidation and joinder, early determination and emergency arbitration.

10:00 am Panel 2 – *Key Features of the new DIS Rules

Moderation: Richard Happ, Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH, Hamburg

Speaker: Rolf Trittman, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, Frankfurt am Main Anke Sessler, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flomm LLP, Frankfurt am Main
Daniel Busse, Allen & Overy LLP, Frankfurt am Main
Christer Danielsson, Advokatfirman Danielsson & Nyberg HB, Stockholm

The Tribunal’s role in case management (e.g. the new Appendix 3) and settlement negotiations, key features of the new DIS Rules that have been questioned. Inquisitorial approach in establishing the facts of the case and the arbitrators’ power to appoint their own expert vs the Swedish version of adversary proceedings. Which approach is better suited for Post M&A and financial disputes?

10:45 am Closing remarks

Alexander Foerster, MANNHEIMER SWARTLING, Stockholm
Richard Happ, Luther Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH, Hamburg

Registration

Please register by 15 February 2019 here: → patryk.kulig@disarb.org or call Patryk Kulig at +49 228 39 18 15 455
The event is free of charge.