

The Research Panel of Arbitration and Other Dispute Resolution is pleased to invite you to attend a seminar on

NOMA Guidelines -

The experience so far in Norwegian ad hoc arbitration: selected hot topics and case law

NOMA (The Nordic Offshore & Maritime Arbitration Association) Guidelines were launched in 2018 as a joint Nordic effort to enhance predictability and transparency in ad hoc arbitration. During the seminar, Amund Bjøranger Tørum will first shortly introduce the NOMA Guidelines and then elaborate on the Norwegian experience with the said soft law. The focus will be placed in particular on the maritime sector and the oil & gas industry, which are the key areas of the speaker's practice.

Amund Bjøranger Tørum has broad experience with domestic and international arbitration. By education he is dr. juris, he is admitted to the Norwegian Supreme Court and has recently published the book "Interpretation of Commercial Contracts".

Speaker:

Amund Bjøranger Tørum, Partner, Head of Dispute Resolution, Energy and Oil Service in Schjødt, Oslo – dr. juris – admitted to the Supreme Court

Commentator:

Annica Börjesson, Advokat, Partner in MAQS Advokatbyrå

Wednesday 20th of March 2019 at 17.00

At Stockholm Centre for Commercial Law, library building, Stockholm University. A light reception will follow the seminar.

Registrations are made here:

<http://sccl.se/machform/view.php?id=207267>

No later than 15th of March 2019

Welcome!

Axel Calissendorff

